

Sinclair Broadcasting's behavior is a scar on the entire industry. Their decision to force stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary prior to the election is what happens when media conglomerates with corporate agendas become too large.

Sinclair exploits public frequencies free of charge and therefore should be obligated to serve the public. Propoganda disguised as news bad for our country.

Sinclair's actions should bring into question their license renewal. They are clearly unworthy.

Thank you,
Dan Tamburro